

What a wonderful world (with my lyric changes in yellow)

The song, which was originally titled, What A Wonderful World, was written by Bob Thiele and George David Weiss in 1967. However, the discography page at AllMusic.com indicates that a third composer, George Douglas, is often credited with the song's original lyrics. On October 10, 2013 and then again on June 9, 2020, I, Dick Morris, came up with my suggested lyric changes to the song that I would have entitled, I'm Really Enjoying My Life! In it, I made a few of what I believe are some very important, lyric-changes that I think makes the original song even more inspiring!; and, also one of the very few songs that helps to include all species in its compassionate words!

F Am Bb Am
I see trees of green, red roses too
Gm7 F A7 Dm
I see them bloom for me and you
 Db Gm7
And I think to myself
 C7 F C7
I'm really enjoying my life!

F Am Bb Am
I see skies of blue, clouds of white
 Gm7 F
The bright, blessed day,
 A7 Dm
The dark sacred night
 Db Gm7
And I think to myself
C7 F Bb F
I'm really enjoying my life!

C7
The colors of the rainbow
 F
That are so pretty in the sky
C7 F
I can easily see on all our bodies passin' by.
 Dm C Dm C
I see friends shakin' hands, sayin, "How do you do!"
Dm C Gm7 C C7
They're really sayin' I really care about you!

F Am Bb Am
I hear babies cry, I watch them grow
Gm7 F
They'll learn so much more
A7 Dm Db
As they grow and I think to myself
Gm7 C7 F Am7 D7
I'm really enjoying my life!
 Gm7 C7 F Bb F
Yes I'm thinkin' to myself I'm really enjoying my life!
